BULLETIN

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Prince Maximilian, the German imperial chancellor in the reichstag today emphatically declared that the new government stood on the basis of a just peace, regardless of the war situation.

BULLETIN

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 5.—(Reuter's).—The new peace note of Baron Burian, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister will declare that all of President Wilson's terms have been accepted according to a Vienna dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung which is quoted in the Dutch Press. The note will be published immediately.

BULLETIN

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 5.—(By the A.P.).—Prince Maximilian of the Baden, the new imperial German chancellor, is willing to accept President Wilson's fourteen peace conditions, according to reports received from Berlin by circles closely connected with the foreign office here, even tho this for many reasons may not be thoroly demonstrated in this statement before the reichstag.

(By The Associated Press)

A powerful movement is apparently under way in Germany for a general armistice and peace. The new German chancellor, Prince Maximilian of Baden is reported to have proposed or to be on the eve of proposing a general suspension of hostilities, the appointment of plenipotentiaries to meet at a neutral place for the discussion of a league for arbitration and disarmament and the forwarding of a request to the entente allies for their terms. It is furthermore requested that the German chancellor has expressed his willingness to accept President Wilson's fourteen peace conditions.

Austria-Hungary thru its minister at Stockholm is requesting the Swedish government, according to advices from Berne to transmit to President Wilson a proposal for a general armistice with the entente allies on land and sea and in the air and start without delay negotiations for peace. These negotiations are to be based on the terms set forth by President Wilson.

A new peace note to be issued by Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister it is announced will declare that all of President Wilson's terms have been accepted by the dual monarchy.

And, finally, from Berne comes the announcement that Germany, Austria-Hungary and Turkey intend simultaneously to approach President Wilson with the object of having him make representations to the other entente allies for a general armistice and negotiations looking to peace.

Propose Immediate Suspension of Hostilities

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 5.—By the Associated Press.—The immediate suspension of hostilities has been proposed by the imperial German chancellor, Prince Maximilian, in the reichstag, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Tijd. The entente allies are to be asked to state their terms.

The chancellor's proposal embraced also the dispatch

Text of Austrian Proposal.

The text of the proposal follows: "The Austro-Hungarian monarchy which has made only defensive warfare and has borne witness several times to its desire to put an end to the bloodshed and conclude an honorable peace, proposes by presentation to President Wilson to conclude immediately with him and his allies a general armistice on land, on sea and in the air and start without delay negotiations for peace.

"These negotiations will be based on the fourteen points of his speech of Feb. 12 (February 11) 1918, and those equal of September 27, 1918."

of plenipotentiaries to a neutral place to discuss the question of a league for national arbitration and disarmament.

The plenipotentiaries are further to be empowered to discuss the creation of a federal Austria, the right of self-determination for Russian frontier states, the restoration and indemnification of Belgium, autonomy for Alsace-Lorraine and the return of the German colonies. The terms of the entente allies will be asked at the same time with the object of forming a basis for the consideration of these important questions.

Willingness to join a league of nations on a basis of equal rights was declared by Chancellor Maximilian in his address. He also proposed complete rehabilitation of Belgium and immediate establishment of popular representative bodies in the Baltic provinces of Lithuania and Poland.

Sweden Will Transmit Proposal

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The Austro-Hungarian minister at Stockholm has been charged to request the Swedish government to transmit to President Wilson a proposal to conclude immediately with him and his allies a general armistice and to start without delay negotiations for peace.

This announcement is made in a Berne despatch to the Havas Agency.

In transmitting this despatch the Berne correspondent of the Havas Agency says:

"Germany and Turkey must take the same step as Austria. Meanwhile the Semi-Official News Agency at Berlin withholds the news, evidently awaiting the meeting of the reichstag, which will be held this afternoon. The imperial chancellor, Prince Maximilian, certainly will make an important announcement in the reichstag, which has assembled four days in advance of the regular time.

"The action of the Austrian government has been preceded by a number of conferences with representatives of Berlin and Hungary both civil and military and representatives from the states of the German confederation."

On Sept. 14 the Austro-Hungarian government invited all the belligerent governments to enter into non-binding discussions at some neutral meeting place with a view to bringing about peace. Two days later President Wilson rejected the proposal, declaring that the American government had made its position and purpose so plain, having repeatedly stated the terms upon which peace would be considered, that it would entertain no proposal for such a conference.

Baron Burian the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, in announcing that he was not surprised at the reception of his peace note, declared that it had already produced remarkable phenomena and would do so still more in the near future. Rumors have been prevalent in Vienna political circles that the foreign minister would soon send a second note to the belligerents, which would contain more precise statements.

Germany's Terms Outlined

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 5.—The Berlin Tageblatt gives the text of the program of the majority parties in the reichstag, which will form the basis of the new German policy.

The first clause provides for adherence to the government's reply to the papal note of August, 1917.

The second clause declares readiness to join in a league of nations based on equality and free economic development.

(Third clause missing.)

The fourth clause says that peace treaties hitherto concluded must form no hindrance to conclusion of general peace.

In the Baltic provinces, Lithuania and Poland popular assemblies are to be created at the earliest possible moment.

Clause five provides for establishment of the independent federal state of Alsace Lorraine, with full autonomy corresponding to the demand of Alsace-Lorraine for a popular assembly.

Clause six demands carrying out without delay electoral reforms in Prussia and reform in these states still without it.

Clause seven aims at the coordination of the imperial government and the government representatives from parliament to carry out a uniform imperial policy. Strict observance of all constitutional responsibility is demanded as well as the abolition of all military institutions that might exercise political influence.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 5.—The first decree signed by King Boris was one demobilizing the Bulgarian army according to a despatch from Sofia.

GREAT GERMAN TRUNK RAILWAY PERSHING'S GOAL

Over 1,850,000 Men Have Embarked For Overseas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The great trunk railway system near the Belgian border which feeds the whole central arch of the German lines in France is the goal of the first American army which General Pershing, chief of staff said today is making rapid progress. Official dispatches show the Americans to be within eighteen miles of the nearest point on the opposite railroad, General March said.

Reports today have indicated that despite stiffening German resistance the American forces are pushing onward and the distance to the goal is being cut down rapidly. "The American divisions at that point," said General March, threaten the main railroad line of communication from Germany to the west front the railroad coming thru Germany and passing thru Sedan and other places of historic military interest. It is the most important single artery of supply of the German army. The Americans have reached a point 18 miles in a direct line from that railroad."

To back up that American effort, General March showed that the flow of American troops to France continues at a rate of more than a quarter of a million a month. A total of 1,850,000 men have been embarked, he said.

The chief of staff plainly showed as he indicated on the maps the progress being made to all military officers here. He also made evident his great pride in the deeds of the American army in France now a vital factor in stirring events.

"The shipping of American troops during the last month has continued over 250,000 in spite of the general epidemic of influenza all over the country in military camps as well as in civil life. In sending men abroad we are aware of the danger which they had the disease not been exposed to it. This has made necessary some readjustment but the flow of troops is as I have stated it, over 250,000 for the last month. The entire number of troops embarked from the United States is over 1,850,000."

Subscriptions To Liberty Loan Pass Billion Mark

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Official reports of Liberty Loan subscriptions gathered by banks up to the close of business last night and compiled late today by the treasury showed a total of $1,097,611,650.

"Approximately $5,000,000,000 in subscriptions still must be raised if the total amount asked by Secretary McAdoo is obtained," said headquarters review. "The daily average which must be achieved between now and Oct. 19 in order to put the loan over the top is about $416,000,000."

Latest official reports show that only two districts, St. Louis and Boston are maintaining the pace that must be set if the loan is to be subscribed.

Following are the reports by districts:

Districts	Subscription	Pct.
St. Louis	$123,219,700	43.7
Boston	167,747,750	33.5
Minneapolis	65,977,950	31.4
San Francisco	93,385,600	23.2
Chicago	178,297,750	20.4
Dallas	19,074,050	15.1
New York	266,098,000	14.7
Richmond	40,532,100	14.4
Cleveland	76,326,700	12.7
Philadelphia	57,408,600	11.4
Atlanta	9,543,450	05.0
Kansas City	No Report.

Tomorrow is Liberty Loan Sunday and at virtually every church service throughout the United States congregations will be urged to buy bonds as a duty toward civilization.

In many communities where churches have been closed on account of Spanish influenza outdoor meetings will be held. Helen Keller today telegraphed Secretary McAdoo from Hollywood, California, saying: "I would like to sell a million dollars worth of bonds from my world of darkness and silence. Will you buy one thru me?"

The secretary, who selling bonds himself, ordered one thru Miss Keller.

SPANISH GRIP SPREADING WITH GREAT RAPIDITY

Surgeon-General Reports 17,383 New Cases in Camps

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Spanish influenza increased more rapidly during the twenty-four hours ending today noon than in any similar period since the disease became epidemic. Reports to the office of the surgeon general of the army showed 17,383 new cases in army camps.

The new cases represented an increase of 4,408 in comparison with the number reported for the preceding 24 hours. A total of 2,141 new cases were reported, an increase of 287. Deaths at camps totaled 653, an increase of 390.

Definite reports as to the spread of the disease among the civilian population were lacking tonight. Dispatches received by the public health service however, told of little abatement of the epidemic in most states. The stringent measures being taken, it was said, soon would show results.

At Camp Taylor

Camp Taylor, Kentucky, with 1,578 new cases, reported the greatest spread of influenza in the twenty-four hours ending at noon today; the Kentucky camp also reported 268 new cases of pneumonia and forth deaths have occurred. In Camp Sherman, Ohio, it is believed the disease is subsiding, only 580 new cases being reported in comparison with more than 1,000 yesterday. Fifty-three deaths, however, were reported from Camp Sherman.

For the forty-eight hour period ending today noon 1,644 new cases of influenza, 229 of pneumonia and 45 deaths were reported at Camp Meade, Maryland. Subsequent to the disease was also noted at Camp Funston, Kansas, where 943 new cases were reported today in comparison with 1,276 yesterday.

Send Nurses to Camp Deven

The American Red Cross which sent a number of nurses to Camp Deven, Mass., where the epidemic has been the most widespread, today received information that the situation at that camp is now well in hand and that the nurses can gradually be withdrawn and assigned to civilian needs.

The demand for nurses has increased so rapidly because of the disease that the Red Cross tonight announced that Canadian nurses will be enlisted for service in the United States. A Canadian committee on nursing service has been organized and a call has been sent to Canada for 300 graduate nurses to be sent to Boston and 25 for duty in Washington. Reports received by the Red Cross from the middle west show more than 400 nurses have been supplied by the organization to meet the emergency.

Gains were made by the disease today in Washington with 27 deaths reported in the last twenty-four hours, the largest number for any similar period since the start of the epidemic. With the exception of a few meetings in the open air, no church services will be held tomorrow in Washington.

GERMANS BOMB FRENCH HOSPITAL

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Many French soldiers were killed or injured when a German airplane bombed a hospital at Chalons on the night of October 1-2. At the time of the raid German prisoners were being sheltered in the cellars of the hospital.

Writing to Deputy Margaine of the Department of the Marne, Premier Clemenceau declares that the bombardment of the hospital is an episode in "the long succession of German crimes which will be taken into account at the final settlement."

CLAIM TREATY NULL AND VOID.

Amsterdam, Oct. 5.—The Russian note to Turkey published by Vorwaerts concludes, according to a Berlin despatch:

"The Russian government is obliged to state that in consequence of the action of the Turkish government the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, which was to have established peaceful relations between Russia and Turkey, is null and void."

CANADIAN CASUALTIES

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 5.—The following names of Americans appear in today's casualty list:

Wounded: J. S. Finn, Onota, Mich.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS DO NOT THINK EARLY END OF WAR IN SIGHT

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The statement was authorized officially late tonight that the American government had received no peace proposal from Austria and had no official information whatever concerning new developments reported to be impending in the Teutonic campaign for peace by negotiation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—An Austrian appeal for an armistice for discussion of peace on President Wilson's own terms is regarded here as the logical sequel of the president's recent rejection of the proposal that hostilities be suspended for secret and non-binding peace discussions. What the American government's answer to such an appeal would be is indicated by the statement authorized when the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister complained that his acceptance of President Wilson's principles had not been noticed—that peace could not be talked of upon any terms so long as Germany and Austria occupied a single foot of conquered territory.

Germany Wants Peace Before Allied Invasion

New and more aggressive phases of the Teutonic effort for peace by negotiations before allied and American soldiers invade German soil evidently are about to be launched, and the only question is the exact form they will take. Officials here will be surprised neither by the Austrian armistice plea, which Berne press despatches thru Paris tonight say is coming, nor by a similar move by Germany herself, which the new chancellor, Prince Maximilian of Baden is said to have proposed or to be about to propose in the reichstag. There is no disposition to believe, however, that an early end of the war is in sight, in spite of the fact that the Germans are known to be desperately anxious to halt by diplomacy the steady advance of their enemies toward the German border.

Expect Teutonic Alliance to Crumble

Proposals will continue to come tho and there is no doubt here that sooner or later as the great task of driving the Germans out of Belgium and France progresses the Teutonic alliance will crumble and seek such terms as were given Bulgaria. In the meantime every offer and suggestion is regarded as nothing more than a continuation of the long waged peace offensive, for the recent reorganization of the German cabinet is not regarded as indicating any real change of heart in Berlin or as making the actual masters of Germany any more worthy of trust. The proposal to send plenipotentiaries in a neutral place to discuss questions of a league for international arbitration and disarmament is regarded as a transparent effort to anticipate the peace council and probably would not be entertained for a moment for that reason. The same objective lies against discussion of the federalization of Austria the right of self determination of the Russian border states, restitution and indemnification of Belgium, autonomy for Alsace-Lorraine and the return of the German colonies.

The reported intention of Germany, Austria and Turkey to seek President Wilson's good office to arrange an armistice like the other moves said to be impending would be received here as nothing more than a continuance of the efforts instituted by Count Burian as far back as last January and repeated several times since, to trap the entente into concessions by a professed acceptance by the central powers of the terms of settlement laid down by President Wilson.

PLANES COLLIDE IN AIR; THREE KILLED

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 5.—Three aviation lieutenants were killed and a fourth injured about noon today when two planes collided near Kellar. The dead are:

BEHIND IN CASUALTY REPORTS

Washington, Oct. 5.—Renewed assurances that American casualties are being made public as rapidly as received from General Pershing was given by General March today at a conference with the senate military committee. He said the war department is behind about 15,000 names in announcing the minor casualties.

INFLUENZA PATIENTS DIE ON STEAMSHIP

GERMANS DESTROY FACTORIES

Paris, Oct. 5.—All factories and business houses in St. Quentin which were likely to complete against German industries were methodically destroyed by the Germans.

Louis Ringuelet, deputy for St. Quentin, who made a careful survey of the city, found that beyond the damage to factories and business houses the property loss will not be great.

SLAYER OF WOMAN SHOT BY POLICE

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 5.—Police Officer Frank Carr was shot and probably fatally wounded and Peter Valaka of Davenport, Ia., slayer of Mrs. Susanna Zick, also was probably fatally wounded, and Bert Underwood, a bystander was shot in the leg, in a battle between police and Valaka on a street car shortly after six o'clock this morning. Valaka shot and killed Mrs. Zick late yesterday afternoon and after an all night hunt for him, police early this morning were notified that he was on a street car coming up town. They met the car, boarded it and at sight of the officers Valaka opened fire.

CAPTAIN HAMM KILLED

Governor Lowden has a way of hitting the mark. Notice the comment he made on the peace proposal: "We are too busy just now selling liberty bonds and training soldiers to talk about peace terms." That is saying a great deal in a few words.

Hoarding seems commendable these days—hoarding money to loan to the government.

Kaiserland will offer a great opportunity to junk dealers after the war.

Long range guns were not long monopolized by the Boche. Americans are now handling them with good effect at Metz.

When you are inclined to complain of war discomforts think of the trenches, and the boys who hold the front lines in France.

German diplomats have lost their chance of creating division and dissension among allied powers. Retreat does not produce confidence.

The Volks Zeitung is again beseeching the Almighty "not to make it too hard for us." The Kaiser's partnership seems to have terminated.

It is not a great sacrifice to give up smoking on Sunday, when we have unrestricted use of cars during the remaining six days of the week. Not a wheel has turned on pleasure cars in England for months.

Were Bret Harte present he probably would agree to the following amendment:

For tricks that are vain, And for ways that are punier, There's naught can compare With the high German Junker.

A writer in the London Times asserts that it would be nothing short of madness to hold a general election this fall. It may cheer him to note what little change a congressional election is going to make in America.

The burglar that recently attempted to rob the house of Water Superintendent Cobb didn't show much judgment. What could a burglar do with an approved bill against the city anyhow?

When former Ambassador Gerard heard of the appointment of Prince Maximilian of Baden as chancellor of Germany the past week he said: "There is a German who is not a brute." It is already beginning to look as if Mr. Gerard had a correct line on the character and personality of the new chancellor.

The course at West Point military academy which has always covered four strenuous years was recently by law changed to one year. Congress evidently believed in speeding up West Point graduations in order to provide more army officers just as well as making active preparations along other lines. No doubt it is American speed and earnestness demonstrated in so many ways that led to the promising peace overtures.

CROWDING OUT THE MEN.

The latest occupation opened to women is nursing. Two women were recently arrested in Chicago for illicit manufacture of liquor. Certainly it is getting to a point when men have a right to complain that women are pushing them out of all kinds of business.

A RELIEF FROM EMBARRASSMENT.

Perhaps after all the soldiers overseas may not have to choose between their mothers and sweethearts in providing for the transport of Christmas packages. The rule was that each soldier could receive but one Christmas package, that 9 by 4 by 3 inches in dimensions, and the soldier must get the shipping permit and send it to the person making the shipment. The soldier with two "best girls" was in hard lines indeed. Now perhaps they will spend Christmas at home.

Rock Island firemen have struck again for the second or third time this year, as they cannot agree with the city authorities about the wages or the number of men in the department. They had better place the firemen under federal control. That seems to be the easiest and surest way these days to settle labor troubles. Nobody wants to have a very long difference with "Uncle Sam." And besides, the government is very liberal in this matter of allowing wage increases.

THE HUNS' DESERTS.

The peace overture story which has come from abroad reminds one of the recent statement by a high officer in the American army: "We can't talk about peace yet," said this officer. "Why to propose a cessation of fighting now would mean a mutiny among Allied troops. They've seen so much of barbarism, so much wanton devastation and cruelty, that they will never be satisfied until they have taken an eye for an eye and have meted out something of the punishment that the Hun so richly deserves."

VISION IN BIG BUSINESS.

The packers are the objects of many attacks and continued criticism but they carry on a great business that the livestock interests and the public generally would vastly miss if it were out of existence. It must be said, too, for the packers that they have vision and constantly reach out to develop their business. Only recently announcement was made that Swift and Co., has established an extensive banking business in Argentina. The purpose is to help finance the livestock men and farmers in the American way and so increase production. The packers certainly do business in a big way.

UNITY OF ACTION.

Somebody wrote or said the other day that co-operation is the hope of the world. No doubt there are a good many different "hopes" but the world has had the finest demonstration of the value of co-operation in witnessing the success of the allied movement since Marshal Foch was placed in supreme command. Before this period of central control there were separate and brave attacks with an effort at working in common, but then came the complete coalition with one voice to command and absolute unity of action resulted. When a blow was struck it was at certain intervals along an immense front, in a way that astounded the Germans. There could be no finer example of what co-operation means.

AFTER THE WAR CONDITIONS.

Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, who recently proposed the appointment of the joint commission to make preparations for after the war conditions, was none too soon with his proposal. The senator suggested that a commission made up of six Democrats and six Republicans should study labor, capital, credit, public utilities, demobilization, industrial and military resources, foreign trade and a dozen other subjects which will need the most careful consideration. It is said that all the other nations including Germany, have long ago taken steps in this very direction and that some of the strongest men of the respective countries have been considering these very questions. As soon as peace comes it is very certain that the activity of strictly war industries will be at an end and there must be an expansion of other industries to take care of the workers. There must be many adjustments of wages and the problem of returning millions of men into civil life without disturbing the industrial situation is one which will demand the best thought of American citizenship. True, peace may be a long way off and if an armistice were declared soon, it would still be many months before disarmament

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

THE HERO.

For years I roamed around the town, without a thing to do, and shed the slugs and railings down, and begged a smoke or chew. With other gossips I was wont to argue by the day, and always liked that sort of stunt, altho it didn't pay. But Crowder thundered, "Work or fight," and meant just what he said, and now I stagger home at night, and worn out go to bed. Each day I face a grievous task that makes my backbone ache; what greater sacrifice, I ask, could any mortal make? They miss me at the checker games and on the bleachers cold, where all the idlers draped their frames in happy days of old. They miss me at the corner store when pool, they miss me where they bowl; for I am toiling like a mule, with sorrow in my soul. They miss me at the theorist store when all the gaffers meet, to thrash old topics o'er and o'er, as grangers thrash their wheat. They miss me at the village kirk when Easter fairs are held; for I arose and went to work when Crowder up and yelled. I wonder when the war is done if people will forget how I have labored in the sun and left a trail of sweat? Will pretty maids put leaves of oak on my heroic dome, or will I seem a foolish joke when soldier boys come home?

CHESTER HART MAKES SUPREME SACRIFICE

Franklin Resident Died at Camp Taylor Friday Night—Was Taken Ill about Week Ago—His Wife Was With Him at the Time of Death—Went to Camp Taylor with Second Increment.

Franklin, October 5.—Word was received here Saturday morning of the death of Chester Hart which occurred at Camp Taylor, Ky., Friday night at 7 o'clock. He had been ill of influenza which developed into pneumonia.

Mr. Hart was taken ill last week and wrote his wife asking her to come to Camp Taylor. She did not think there was anything serious and did not leave until Monday. After her arrival there she did not locate her husband for two days. When she located him he was in a hospital and in a critical condition.

Deceased was 26 years of age and was the son of John and Lena Hart and was born and had spent his entire life in this vicinity. He was called in the second increment of men from Morgan county and was sent to Camp Taylor and has been there since.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter six years of age and one brother, Claude Hart now stationed at Camp Dix. His wife was formerly Miss Mabel G. Gottschall.

The remains probably will be brought here for burial the nothing further has been heard from Mrs. Hart since she sent word of her husband's death.

WITH THE SICK

A letter received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Black from their son, Clyde, who is at the Great Lakes Station, stated that he is now almost recovered from an attack of influenza. His first symptom of the disease was in losing his voice and he can't yet talk in a normal way but is otherwise recovered.

Lieut. Paul Strawn is ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Strawn, on South East street. It was his intention to leave Friday for an eastern mobilization camp but the illness prevented. It was feared for a time that his case would develop into pneumonia but he was much improved yesterday.

Social Events

Afternoon Party.

A very pleasant company was that given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carlton W. Taylor on Grove street. The event was in honor of Supt. and Mrs. H. T. White, who have recently come to the School for the Deaf. This afternoon reception was planned by Mrs. Taylor, together with Mrs. Helen R. Jordan, Miss Upham and Miss Jordan. Members of the faculty of the School for the Deaf were the guests, together with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woodson of the School for the Blind, Mrs. Ellen Gillett, Mr. C. P. Gillett, Miss Alma Gillett and Miss Alma Gillett Cole of New York City. Garden flowers were used in the decorations and the pleasant weather made the porch and yard, as well as the rooms of the home, available for the guests. Refreshments were served and in every way the event was enjoyable.

AIN'T IT GLORIOUS.

How would you like to deal with a wheat farmer in Australia or a corn grower in Argentina? The Food Administration reports that nearly 300 million bushels of wheat are stored in Australia. There are no ships to move it and therefore no market for it. The government has guaranteed a price of 83 cents per bushel for it, and the commonwealth has added 12 cents, making a total of 95 cents to the producer. In Argentina there is no market for corn, and many farmers are disposing of it for fuel at 40 cents per bushel. At that, however, it would be better to be a farmer in Argentina or Australia than to be one in Russia where the Germans would take your wheat and not even say thank you.

No thanks; we are glad to be Americans, and we are not going to get over being glad, either.—(Exchange.)

Property Loss of Wrecked Shell Plant Millions

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Oct. 5.—Army officers investigating the explosions which wrecked the great shell loading plant of the T. A. Gillespie company at Morgan, estimated tonight that the dead would number not more than fifty and the injured 150. The property loss probably will approximate between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000.

Late today it was believed the danger of greater devastation by the blowing up of stores of T. N. T. was virtually over. All that is left unexploded is buried in underground caissons along the bank of Cheesequake Creek, upon which the plant is located, or is loaded on four barges tied up at the company docks along that stream.

Army officers reported after a reconnaissance by airplane that the location of the boats and storehouses is such that they believed there was slight probability it would be exploded either by fire or concussion.

With the passing of the menace of an explosion around the plant, the problem of caring for the homeless became the most serious tonight.

South Amboy, a town of about 10,000 population four miles north of Morgan, was virtually wrecked by the series of blasts. Scarcely a building in it remains habitable.

Many buildings were unroofed and the walls of others blown in while every pane of glass was broken. More than 400 citizens decide to spend the night there, however.

The Atlantic division of the Red Cross established headquarters at Perth Amboy this afternoon. Fifty ambulances from New York and Newark with corps of doctors and nurses arrived to take charge of the situation. Eight central depots were opened in churches, schools and other public buildings. Commandeered automobiles and cars driven by members of the women's motor corps from New York and New Jersey were sent out to pick up fleeing refugees and bring them back to the depots for shelter.

RULING AGAINST BALL PLAYERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—A sweeping ruling against attempts of Major League Baseball players to collect salaries on contracts extending beyond September 1, the date fixed by the government for the suspension of professional baseball was handed down tonight by the national baseball commission which held such claims to be unjustified and illegal. The decision was announced by President Johnson of the American League himself, a member of the commission.

The commission's decision hinges on the case of "Jake" Daubert of the Brooklyn Nationals, who sought to collect $2,150 from the Brooklyn club because his contract calling for $9,000 a season was terminated on Sept. 2. Daubert contended that under the conditions stipulated in his contract which did not expire until October 14 the Brooklyn club could not have released him without his consent and he demanded that the terms of the agreement be fulfilled. The commission's ruling which probably will cover all similar cases held that the club could not be held liable to pay Daubert the full amount agreed upon because, under the "work or fight" order, his contract was virtually rendered illegal and impossible.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

American and French troops are crushing in the southern wall of the German defenses with heavy blows along the front from west of Rheims to the Meuse.

In the north, under the menace of the British pressure from Flanders to north of St. Quentin the enemy has set fire to Douai and other towns and villages in that area, evidently in preparation for a retreat to the French frontier. Heavy explosions also have been heard.

With the French covering the western outlet of the Grandpre Gap, the Argonne forest the Americans in the advance of three miles between the Meuse and the Aire are rapidly closing up the eastern entrance to the pass. General Pershing's men in smashing blows Saturday, realized a considerable advance all along the front and took additional villages and heights from the Germans.

The enemy resistance was most stubborn as on this front the Germans are standing on the Kremlhilde line, the last of their prepared defenses.

The Americans are advancing toward Sedan and the great communication line upon which German security on the present front depends. This important railway is only eighteen miles from the American front.

On both sides of the Sulphe the American and French troops under General Gouraud rapidly are driving the Germans from the heights dominating the Champagne region east of Rheims. The Germans are retreating to the river Arnes, but the American already have reached that stream at St. Etienne. Northwest of Rheims the French have forced several crossings of the Aisne canal, endangering the German rear in Champagne. A German retreat on a considerable front to a depth of at least five miles in Champagne is not unlikely as a result of the successes of Generals Gouraud and Berthelot.

From St. Quentin north to the Lys on the front before the important bases of Cambrai, Douai and Lille, the British are exerting strong pressure. The Germans are endeavoring to hold on to their positions until the work of devastation in their rear is completed. North of St. Quentin the British have driven furtherward the apex of the salient at Beaurivore and on Saturday captured 1,000 prisoners.

In Belgium the forces under King Albert maintain their pressure. Since Sept. 28 the Belgian, French and British have advanced nine miles on a 25 mile front and have taken 1,500 prisoners and 35 guns.

The American troops in the sector between Rheims and the Meuse are engaged in extremely heavy fighting. Joined up with Gouraud's army they are driving the Germans before them at a quickening pace.

French troops are reported to have reached Bethenville which is several miles beyond the former line.

The statement adds:

"We hold the whole course of the Arnes river; we have crossed the Sulphe river at Orainville and the Arnes at several points.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Field Marshal Haig reports some progress by British troops around Mont Brehain and Beaurivore in the St. Quentin sector. His statement tonight adds that the Germans have begun to withdraw from the high ground between Le Catelet and Crevecoeur.

It says: "Operations of a minor character were continued successfully by us north of St. Quentin. Australian and English troops accompanied by tanks made progress in the neighborhood of the villages of Mont Brehain and Beaurivore and on the spur northwest of the latter village. A number of prisoners have been taken. "As a result of our continued pressure along the whole front the enemy has begun to withdraw from the high ground known as Laterrière plateau in the bend of the Scheldt canal between LeCatelet and Creve Coeur."

LONDON, Oct. 5.—6:30 p. m.—Seventy one thousand Turks have been taken prisoner by General Allenby's forces since the commencement of the British operations in Palestine and Syria, according to an official statement issued tonight by the war office. The text of the statement reads:

"There has been no change in the general situation. Northwest of Damascus our cavalry are clearing the country. They have taken more than 15,000 prisoners in this area.

"Since the commencement of operations on the night of September 18 more than 71,000 prisoners and 250 guns have been captured besides some 8,000 prisoners claimed by the Arab army."

ROME, Oct. 5.—Austro-Hungarians yesterday launched an attack against the Italian lines north of the Grappa on the mountain front of Northeastern Italy. The war office says that the enemy was repulsed all along the front of attack except at one place where the Austro-Hungarians gained a footing. The Austro-Hungarians began their assault along the front from the head of Stizson Valley to Mont Solarolo. The place where the enemy penetrated the Italian lines was at Malga Valpez.

The text of the statement follows: "In the Tonale region southeast of Ponte di Ercavalle, our detachments surprised and destroyed an enemy post, capturing the few survivors.

"At Dosso Casina an enemy assault patrol was driven back. On the Asiago plateau British detachments broke into the enemy's lines, devastated his works and dispersed the garrison. We captured 150 prisoners.

"North of Monte Grappa the enemy attacked our front from the head of the Stizson Valley to Monte Solarolo. He was repulsed everywhere except at Malga Valpez where he gained a footing."

ROOSEVELT WARNS AGAINST SOCIALISM

Former President Declares Non-Partisan League Proposes Dangerous Program—In Arranging Class Against Class.

Billings, Mont., Oct. 5.—America cannot afford to accept the lead of any party, not of any organization calling itself non-partisan, but really acting as a party, which is not first and foremost American, and nothing but American, declared Colonel Theodore Roosevelt here tonight in an address in which he outlined various phases of the war and its many delinquencies.

"There are real and grave causes for complaint among the farmers here in the northwest," the former president continued as he read from a paper figures which purported to show discrepancies in connection with the prices paid for wheat and in freight rates but he asserted that "many of the remedies proposed are not only false, but mischievous and very grave harm may be caused by the character of the agitation conducted by some of the men who profess to be seeking these remedies."

"To introduce state socialism as a relief for these conditions would result in nothing but widespread damage. Some of the conditions complained of can be met by state action. There should be federal control of elevators and flour mills with establishing terminal elevators at convenient points."

"But I emphatically disbelieve in any party, and especially if that party calls itself a non-partisan party, which organizes a single class against any other classes. I object just as strongly whether such a political organization claims to be in the interest of townpeople or country people, of merchants, lawyers, farmers or wage earners."

Favored Non-Partisan League
"When the Non-Partisan League first appeared I was inclined to welcome it and it was with real reluctance that I was obliged to believe that the leadership that controlled it was of such a character as to threaten this country."

with evils analogous to those which came from Bolshevism abroad and from I. W. W.'s at home.

"Finally, the meeting of the league at Minneapolis about a year ago was turned into a ghost dance of the Huns-without-gates, and it became evident to me, that insofar as they dared, the most prominent leaders of the league were playing the game of sedition and disloyalty and that they were seeking to acquire power by pandering to, and influencing the base spirit of greed and envy and ignorance and class hatred. They were trying to do what Lenin and Trotsky have done to Russia."

Convicted of Disloyalty
"The I. W. W. leaders have been convicted of disloyalty and yet it was to the head of this organization, W. D. Haywood, that the secretary of the Non-Partisan League wrote on April 5, 1917, a letter in which he spoke of this damned war business."

"There isn't a German abroad, or a pro-German at home who does not wish success to the Non-Partisan League as at present controlled, and to the I. W. W.'s."

Colonel Roosevelt asserted that the two greatest issues at this time were to put through the war successfully and insist on thoroughgoing Americanism.

In connection with Germany's proposal to enter a league of nations, Mr. Roosevelt vehemently declared that until Germany had been "beaten to her knees and just so long as Germany is under her present government, to allow her to join such a league would be like asking outlaws, train-robbers and gunmen to join a sheriff's posse as guardians of the peace."

A League of True Nations
"We have a league of free nations now that is an actual going concern," continued the colonel, "and inasmuch as we are members of that league we have been culpably derelict in our duty in not long ago declaring war on the armed enemies of the league, Turkey and Bulgaria. We have wrongfully left our allies too win without our aid, decisive victories over these two vassal states of Germany."

The speaker advocated the recognition of the Jugo-Slavs, Armenians, Poles and other oppressed nationalities, as well as the Czech-Slovaks and continued.

"But we must not expect from such a league more than it can do, nor ourselves promise more than we can perform and we must never forget that such a League to Enforce Peace, or League of Nations, must be treated as an addition to, and not a substitute for, the preparing of our own defenses."

Uncle Sam must, in the last analysis, rely on himself for his safety and not on scraps of paper signed by others."

CAPT. M'DONALD IS CAMP INSTRUCTOR

Former Jacksonville Resident Has Specialized in Grenade Work—Regrets That He Has Not Been Sent Overseas.

Capt. Marshall McDonald who has come to Jacksonville for a short visit with his aunt, Mrs. E. F. Bullard and other relatives, from this city to Camp Sherman at Chillicothe, Ohio. Capt. McDonald who has been living in Oklahoma enlisted in the war more than a year ago and has been spending his time at southern cantonments. He made a special study of hand grenade throwing and as a result was detailed an instructor in this branch of the service. To a friend here, Capt. McDonald revealed the fact that for months past he had been trying to be relieved of this special line of duty and get overseas. At one time he indicated his intention of resigning his commission and then enlisting as a private, with the end in view of getting into service abroad. However, he was dissuaded from this plan by superior officers, who pointed out to him that the path of duty would keep him at cantonments here as the government felt that his services were more needed at home than overseas. Recently Capt. McDonald had the chance to exchange posts with the hope that he may be sent across to get into the fighting at the front.

PARTITION SUIT IS FILED.

In the circuit court Saturday W. N. Hairgrove filed a partition proceeding on behalf of Mrs. Ida Elizabeth Minter directed against Mrs. Rebecca Jane Leck, John G. Hopper, W. G. Hadden and James Bates. In this suit the complainant is seeking partition of two tracts of land in which her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hopper, had a life interest. One piece of property was bequeathed to Mrs. Hopper by her husband, John Hopper, for life. Mr. Hopper died in January 1886. This property comprises 25 acres and is located at the northwest corner of Diamond and Walnut streets. The other tract of land, which is in 36-16-11, was acquired by Mrs. Hopper with a trust fund of about $6,000 which had been provided for in the will of her husband.

The complaint in the suit asks that a court partition of the property be made, since the parties are unable to agree upon a division.

The corner stone of the Centennial Memorial building was laid and the statues of Stephen A. Douglas and Abraham Lincoln were dedicated. Douglas, placed a wreath upon his statue. The child is five years old, speaks with a charming southern accent and was the center of an admiring throng yesterday. Miss Florence Lowden placed the wreath upon the statue of Abraham Lincoln.

FRENCH ADOPT CO-OPERATIVE BUYING

Washington, Oct. 4.—What amounts to co-operative, syndicated buying in foreign markets has been adopted as a war measure by French manufacturers who get raw materials abroad. Commercial Atache Pierce Williams, at Paris, points out that French industries therefore are rapidly being centralized in syndicates acting on behalf of the French government.

These importing syndicates are known as consortiums. Their capital stock is fixed by the government and each manufacturer requiring the raw materials is permitted to take a certain amount based on his pre-war imports.

The consortium is permitted to distribute the material to the members, at a price determined by the Ministry of Commerce. It is expected that wasteful competition will be prevented in markets which also must supply France's associates in the war, and that profiteering by mushroom firms will be eliminated.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL RITES FOR W. D. GATES

Funeral Services for Soldier Who Died Recently at Camp Grant Held Saturday Afternoon at the Home of Parents—Rev. F. B. Madden and Rev. E. B. Landis Officiated.

Very fitting were the funeral services held Saturday afternoon in memory of William DeMotte Gates, who died the death of a soldier recently at Camp Grant, Rockford. A large company of friends gathered on the lawn of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gates, 1036 West Lafayette avenue. The service was in charge of Rev. F. B. Madden, pastor of Grace M. E. church, assisted by Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of Westminster church. It was indeed an impressive scene as the ministers stood upon the porch of the home beneath the folds of an American flag, while the family and the soldier friends of the deceased sat near the ambulance which contained the flower covered bier. Mention was made of the brave life so willingly laid down, as "Pat" Gates had entered United service at Camp Grant following several failures to enlist because of a slight defect in his eyesight. When the home services were concluded the cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. D. L. Clark, Mrs. Johanna Onken, Misses Katherine Barr and Katherine Carter. The bearers were Jerome E. Gates of Minneapolis, Marshall D. Gates of Lincoln and Ray A. Gates of Beardstown, brothers of the deceased; two friends of many years' standing, Dan L. Clark and John D. Cain, together with Corp. Benjamin Smith, who had been closely associated with the deceased at Camp Grant and accompanied the remains here. Benjamin Burdick of Co. C. sounded taps at the cemetery.

Rev. E. B. Landis read the 90th, the 91st and the 121st Psalms. Rev. F. B. Madden spoke of the presence of the military escort, Corporal Benjamin F. Smith, 44 Co., 461 Depot Brigade, Camp Grant, who was a personal friend of DeMotte Gates and of the desire of the men of "Pat's" company to send a large escort. But after they had made their plans to do so the camp commander refused to allow the men to leave at this time. Then he spoke in part as follows:

There are two ideals of life; expressed by the words, get and give, self and others, acquisition and altruism. Acquisition is lawful until it becomes covetousness. Then it is a curse: for "a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things he possesseth." The altruistic ideal has flowered in service never as today. Nature teaches this ideal.

He quoted Shakespeare's words "Heaven hath put us as we with torches do."

Not light them for themselves; for if our virtues Did not go forth of us, 'twere all alike. As if we had them not. Spirits are not finely touched But to fine issues; nor nature never lines. The smallest scruple of her excellence. But, like a thrifty goddess, she determines Herself the glory of a creditor—Both thanks and use."

Emerson read the same lesson from the leaves, when he wrote: "A man was born, not for prosperity, but to suffer for the benefit of others, like the noble rock maple, which, all round our villages, bleeds for the service of man."

He gave an interpretative setting of Isaiah's words: "A man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and as a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as a shadow of a great rock in a weary land." This illustrated Christ's words: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." The son of man exemplified this truth in His own life; for He came not to be ministered to by a retinue of servants, or company of soldiers, but to give, not libraries nor hospitals, nor wealth, but His own life, a ransom not for a certain caste or class or race but for all. Paul caught the same spirit and wrote the Philippians, "Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you."

This spirit of redemptive altruism is coming to possess both the soldier and the civilian in the Allied nations. He told of the French soldier who gave France his life and wept in the hospital because France had taken his feet only, and of the American soldier boy who asked his parents to think of his death on the field of battle should be meet death there, as an investment, not a loss.

DeMotte Gates, who volunteered three times but was rejected because of defective sight, was most happy in the service of his country when granted the privilege thru the Selective draft. He had passed the examination for the coveted overseas service, but was retained by his superior officer because of his eminent fitness and efficiency for service in the cantonment. The young soldier had been notified just a few days before his death of his appointment as sergeant.

The men who fall upon the field of duty in America are animated by the same spirit of patriotism and loyalty as those who fall upon "the far-flung battle line" in Europe. These all belong to the great multitude of the world's immortals and will live enshrined in the hearts of a grateful nation, and their stars will shine with equal lustre on the service flag of the world.

The following poem written by DeMotte's uncle, Marshal DeMotte of Corning, Cal., was read by request:

There is a wide margin of red; Red like the blood of a man, Red as the heart of the nation. Within this a field of pure white; White as the faith of a mother. As the high aims of our people. This is the flag with a story.

The stars in its field tell that story. It's our new flag, our Young Glory.

As each star marks a State in Old Glory, So each star marks a man in Young Glory; Thus each star marks a man in our story. And star differs not from star in its glory.

If there be a star of pure gold, A gold star on the field of white, Such star marks a glory completed;

Full measure from man and from Nation; Full glory of service for him, The glory of gift for his people.

With heart blood as of man and Nation, Faithful to loved one and ideals. We have sent these out under Old Glory

To seek and to win their own glory, To preserve for our people their glory, Thus to win for Old Glory more glory, In their honor we raise this Young Glory!

During part of his work here Mr. Wascher had as his associate Engineer Moore but the latter has now entered the army service and now Mr. Wascher is alone. His investigations about soil will continue now until bad weather makes this impossible and then the work will be resumed next spring.

According to the plan followed, soil test are made in every 40 acre tract in the county. When the specialist, using an auger, finds a different type of soil on the 40 where he is located he follows this line to the edge of the 40 and his finds are indicated on a map.

Mr. Wascher is now working in the vicinity of Concord and is covering ground at the rate of about 8 to 12 square miles per week. The county contains something more than 500 square miles. It is entirely probable that next spring when the work is resumed that Mr. Wascher will have a number of associate workers. Soil surveys have been made in about 70 counties in Illinois and the work is in progress now in two counties besides this, Lee and Ellingham. After the soil survey of a county is made it is published in pamphlet form and constitutes a permanent agricultural record for that country. Copies of the report are available for farmers and others interested and the reports are also kept on file in the college or agriculture.

THE LINCOLN HALF-DOLLARS

The United States has minted one hundred thousand souvenir half-dollars in commemoration of the Centennial of the State of Illinois. No more of these coins will be minted. The coins are of the usual design except that they bear on one side a fine profile of Lincoln.

The coins are being distributed thru the Illinois Centennial Commission which is distributing them locally thru the historical societies. The Morgan County Historical society has received 573 of these coins, the allotment to Morgan county, and is distributing them thru the banks of the county.

The coins are being sold at one dollar each and the profits accruing to the State Centennial Commission or local society are to be used for the expenses of historical celebrations or for some charity.

These coins are being distributed at the same price and in the same manner as were the original issues of the Columbian half-dollars. The Columbian halves of 1892 promptly went to a premium altho a large quantity was minted.

The issue of the Lincoln half-dollars is small when compared with the great number of coin collectors thru the world who will want specimens of the coin. Undoubtedly they will be in great demand in the near future.

If you want any of these coins for yourself or your family, go to your bank at once and secure them.

The people all know the value of the ice cream made by Mullenix & Hamilton. Get it for Sunday dinner.

BOUGHT LOTS OF SHOES.

Lieut. Hardwick led his company of soldiers down town yesterday, part of them to the store of Mathis, Kamm and Shibe and a part to Hopper and Son and had them fitted with new shoes. It is understood the boys were paying for this footwear as the uniforms and shoes are partly in coming and they wanted to be suitably shod.

EGGED THE WRONG CAR.

Last Sunday the sheriff of the county was taking an injured man to a doctor for rush treatment when a lot of young fellows, supposing him to be a slacker, threw rotten eggs at his car. He stopped and took in three of them, meaning to have them arrested, but they begged so hard and promised so well he let them go.

At the Congregational church tonight Mr. Collins will continue his address on the conditions of the world war. The subject for this evening being "The Right and Wrong of Hate." Previous to the address there will be a short community sing. You'll like it at the Congregational church.

BAPTISTS MET AT ASHLAND

Morgan and Scott County Association Held Interesting Session—Literberry Women Won Banner.

The Morgan and Scott County Baptist association met at Ashland Thursday and Friday with an attendance of approximately 100 delegates and visitors. The program carried out during the two days was one of special merit and those who heard the splendid addresses made during the sessions derived much of inspiration therefrom. A. A. Curry of Pisgah was elected chairman and Mrs. William Barrows of Waverly, clerk. The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. E. N. Groce of Ashland. The Sunday school address was given by Prof. J. H. Collins of Springfield. Among other speakers were Rev. L. E. Riley, who is in Y. M. C. A. work at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, and Rev. W. J. Campbell of Waverly.

The program on Friday afternoon was in charge of the Women's Foreign Missionary society. The program included a talk by Mrs. A. A. Todd of this city, her theme being "The Challenge of the Hour." "The Home Church and World Peace" was presented by Mrs. E. N. Groce of Ashland. Miss E. Broadstone of Chicago spoke on Home Missions and Miss Carrie Spires of this city told of the work of the World Wide Guild. The cause of foreign missions was presented by Mrs. Berge of Chicago.

In the missionary reading contest the ladies of the Literberry church won the banner given by the president, Mrs. Margaret Burnett of Waverly, the Literberry society having read 150 missionary books during the year just closed. The women of Union Baptist church at Pisgah made an excellent record in this contest, having read 130 books during the specified period.

Mrs. Brockhouse in company with her sister Mrs. Mabel Hinners were returning to Mercedosa from a visit in the country. In descending a hill some part of the harness broke and the vehicle ran against the horse, frightening it and causing it to run away. All of the occupants were thrown out. Mrs. Brockhouse had her baby in her arms but it was not injured and Mrs. Hinners also escaped injury. Mrs. Brockhouse is the wife of F. W. Brockhouse, deputy county clerk. She will probably be confined to the house for some time but at this time no serious results are anticipated.

SPRINGFIELD WON FROM JACKSONVILLE

Local High School Football Team Lost Opened to Springfield by Score of 30 to 7—Both Teams Played Poor Football—Smith and Rexroat Star.

With both teams playing mediocre football Jacksonville high lost to Springfield high on Illinois field Saturday afternoon by a score of 30 to 7.

Springfield started with a rush after the first kickoff and soon made a touchdown but failed at goal. Before the first period closed the visitors added another touchdown and kicked goal. It began to look like an overwhelming score but Jacksonville braced and the first half ended with the score at 13 to 0.

It was Springfield's second game and with a 60 to 0 victory over Virden last Saturday the Jacksonville rooters faced the game with misgivings. However, Springfield did not prove such a stiff proposition and during the second half and especially during the fourth period Jacksonville easily outplayed the capital city boys in every department of the game.

Springfield was guilty of much fumbling and this was especially true in the third and fourth periods when after holding for downs they would fumble and Jacksonville would recover the ball. Smith of Jacksonville also seemed able to break thru the visitors line and blocked several punts. One of these he recovered and a Springfield tackler following up closely tackled him and carried him across the line for the only touchdown made by the locals.

Considering that practically all of the Jacksonville men are green and many playing their first game of football, Coach Hopkins men showed well and should be much better on their next game. The greatest weakness seemed to be in tackling and inability to solve the opponents offense. The locals also failed to run their plays with speed and appeared at times to not know just what to do. However, this fault will be eliminated with practice and Jacksonville should prove a formidable opponent during the remainder of the season. Smith and Rexroat did especially fine work for Jacksonville.

First Period.
Jacksonville kicked to Springfield and the ball was carried back to the center of the field.

Springfield fumbled the ball but recovered and gained the distance. Springfield by a series of line plays carried the ball to the five yard line. The locals seemed to be unable to stop the visitors' rushes. Jacksonville braced and held for two downs and Springfield was penalized for off side. Finally an end run carried the ball over for a touchdown but the goal was missed. Score Springfield 6; Jacksonville 0.

Springfield kicked to Jacksonville. The ball went over the goal line and was put in play by Jacksonville on the 20 yard line. Jacksonville could not gain and kicked. It was Springfield's ball in the center of the field. On the first play Springfield skirted the end and ran for a touchdown and kicked goal. Score, Springfield, 13; Jacksonville, 0.

During the remainder of the period the ball frequently changed hands but neither team had the puph to put the ball over.

Second Period.
Each team had the ball frequently during the second period but neither seemed to be able to gain consistently and the ball changed hands on punts and fumbles. Springfield was the chief offender in the fumbling line and Jacksonville recovered the ball a number of times but could not carry it successfully. Springfield tried several forward passes in this period but did not succeed in getting away with any of them. The half closed with the ball in Jacksonville's possession. Score, Springfield, 13; Jacksonville, 0.

Third Period.
Springfield kicked off to Jacksonville and the ball was fumbled. Springfield recovering. The visitors by a series of line plays carried the ball over and goal was kicked. Score, Springfield, 20; Jacksonville, 0.

Jacksonville kicked to Springfield and downed the ball on the 30 yard line. Springfield fumbled and Smith recovered. Springfield immediately held for downs and the ball went over. Springfield made first down in two tries. Sterneman dropped back and kicked a field goal from the 30 yard line. Score, Springfield, 23; Jacksonville, 0.

Fourth Period.
Jacksonville kicked to Springfield and the ball was downed on the 30 yard line. Springfield made first down twice and then was forced to kick. Rexroat carried the ball to Jacksonville's 20 yard line. Jacksonville put some "pep" in her playing and carried the ball by line plays and end runs to the center of the field. Jacksonville was forced to kick and Springfield got the ball. Finally Springfield worked a forward pass and the ball was carried over for a touchdown and goal was kicked. Score Springfield, 30; Jacksonville, 7. The whistle blew for the final period shortly afterward. The lineup:

Energy

is to filter and cast out waste products and poisons from the blood stream. When the kidneys are overworked, weak or diseased, the waste matter remains in the system and causes pain in side or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other symptoms.

When a person's kidneys are out of order, there is lack of energy, force, vigor, alert and general effectiveness. Kidneys and bladder must properly function for anyone to enjoy good health.

Foley Kidney Pills

are prompt in action and toxic in their healing and soothing effect on weak, sore, overworked, diseased kidneys and bladder.

Mrs. Mary Henderson, Mt. Carmel, S. C., writes: "Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I was troubled with kidney trouble and my left side hurt me so I could hardly get up in the morning. Side is all done and feeling fine."

THE MESSAGE

Many people think that of all the realms of poetry brought forth by the war there has been nothing to compare in thought and expression with "In Flanders' Fields," by Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae, of the Canadian Army Medical Corps, since dead at the front:

"In Flanders' fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row

That mark our place; and in the sky

The larks, still bravely singing, fly—

Scarce heard amid the guns below.

"We are the dead. Short days ago

We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved; and now we lie

In Flanders' fields.

"Take up our quarrel with the foe!

To you, from falling hands, we throw

The torch. Be yours to lift it high!

If ye break faith with us who die

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders' fields."

However beautiful may be the expression in this poem, it seems subordinate to the thought, and need not detain us here. The dead speak in these lines, and we who live must heed.

There can be no question as to the outcome of this war. The spiritually and intellectually civilized part of the world has resolved that the portion intellectually civilized only must be subdued. If this portion had kept the peace it would have been left to breed and barter in its own materialism; but it broke the peace and came ravening out of its jungle.

The Germans know that they are going to be beaten, as well as the Allies know it. For months, however, Germany has hoped, and she still hopes, that by some chance she may make a peace which will favor her to a greater or less degree. Germany knows that the spiritually civilized world did not want war and long ago came to hate this war forced upon it. It is here that we must heed the voice of those who lie in Flanders' fields. "If ye break faith—"

The creatures called, for want of a more precise term, "pacifists," have grown constantly less numerous. Noise rather than numbers distinguished them even from the first. But to millions of our people there comes sometimes the temptation to long for peace, even though it falls short of victory. Has not the torch been carried almost far enough? Even if taken up, may it not be held a little less high?

These "millions of our people" are made up of the fathers and mothers of the soldiers who have gone to the front; we are thinking particularly of the mothers. You are the mother of the son with our forces overseas. A whisper comes to you that the Germans are ready for a just peace. This whisper may come from a neighbor, or it may come in print, or in some other way. The neighbor, or the author of the lines in print, may be only foolish, or he may be a sympathizer with Germany. Your son is beyond the danger line, facing the exploding shells and poison gas of the unquenchable enemy. Other men in his company have been killed. Perhaps you would be more than human if you did not at least listen to these whispers.

Perhaps it is not strange if you are tempted to believe, and to say "We must make the just peace the Germans are willing to accept." Not strange!—with peace your boy comes home, without it he stays to face the exploding shells and the poison.

But what of the son of another mother, who sleeps in Flanders' fields? "We are the dead." If he could speak, would he say, "Let them have their peace?" The answer has been made by one now himself of their company: "If ye break faith with us who die,

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders' fields."

That your son may know immediate safety it must not be that those other women's sons died in vain. They have given the "last full measure of devotion," and they more than we who have given almost nothing, are entitled to speak. "Take up our quarrel with the foe." It must not be that their death was fruitless, nor must the son of your son be forced to go through this same ordeal a quarter-century from now.

For of course the point is here: The Germans do not want a just peace. A just peace means the wiping out of their whole military machine and most of their dangerous feudal system of government. A just peace means the hanging of a considerable number of Germans of high rank who have ordered the violation of all the rules of civilized warfare.

A just peace means that the Germans must pay for all the slaughter and damage they have done. The Germans do not want a just peace.

This job must be finished. We shall not break faith. These dead in Flanders did not die in vain. While the larks still bravely sing, our guns must as bravely speak below till a peace is won of which both the dead and the sons of our sons can say: "They kept faith."

(From the October Woman's Home Companion.)

We have had our little boy under different doctors' care ever since he was born up to the present time. He is now seven years old. He suffered very much from pains in the stomach and sides. Would have spells often when it would seem as tho it was his last. He was so weak we had to dress and undress him. He could not stand any exercise and was very thin. A few months ago we took him to Dr. C. W. Carson, the Chicago Specialist and today he told us that we need not bring him back. For the last few months he has grown like a weed and is now strong and can run a race as well as any boy. He is well in every way.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a hollow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a veritable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, the natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

You will enjoy a dinner-time satisfaction that will be shared by other members of your family, if you allow us to serve you with the best meats ever honestly weighed out in an effort to please the public taste and pocketbook. Let Us Serve You

MAVERICKS

Dear Editor: Here's mine in answer to last Sunday's call. Now get Bill's. Hope you won't have to send him a questionnaire. "Swat Till the Last Armed Foe Expires."

The swatting game is quite the fad. No telling where it's going. Have the folks gone swatting-mad?

How fast the habit's growing! There was a time when, I believe, The fly was all we juster Swat from morn till dewy eve— But now we swat the rooster.

Then next in turn I understand, The barberry-bush is slated; And so it goes—thruout the land The craze is not abated.

No stopping here—on with the fun! With zeal to correspond Go take in hand to swat the Hun A paid-up Liberty Bond.

We are glad that Bulgaria finally quit falling for the Kaiser's "bull."

Warren Luttrell in the Franklin Times commenting on a sign over a Springfield shoe store door, which offers for sale "Footpad Shoes," says he did not know there was enough of the gentry in the capital city to justify the carrying of a special line of shoes for them. Evidently Warren has never visited Springfield during the state fair.

Signs of Winter. In the past few days we have noticed that the girls have discarded their furs and donned waists cut so low in the neck that the waist line is almost obliterated.

The boys fighting "Over There" are following that old football slogan "Everybody get a man." It seems to work only that everybody is getting two or three men judging from the way prisoners are being sent back from the front.

We didn't know there was any vice in Jacksonville.

Food for man or beast is what a local firm advertises. We know some men that it would be difficult to decide what kind of feed should be ordered for them.

The curtailment of vice has begun in Chicago. We would hate, however, to have the contract to curtail vice in that city.

If the telephone companies stop giving us the time of day, election returns, sport results, location of fires and calling us when we want to catch a train, we will have but little use for a telephone.

In addition to the things enumerated above, if the telephone companies would have the operators discontinue listening in on subscribers and disseminating what they hear it might also help in time conservation and tend to better the service that is left.

The A. P. Song. "Smash 'em and crash 'em and treat 'em rough! Jam 'em and cram 'em—that's the stuff! Every man jack of 'em wants you in back of 'em— Buying your bonds from the ranks! Every last son of 'em, says to buy one of 'em— "While they go on with the tanks."

We noted the heading of an editorial in an exchange the other day which said, "Girls be careful what you wear." From some we have seen on the streets recently they don't care whether they wear anything.

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Preparations are being made for the fall meeting of the Springfield Association of Congregational churches which will be held in our local Congregational church. It is already apparent that some of the leaders of the denomination will be here in conference. Dr. J. W. F. Davies of the Community Church of Winnetka who has the best organized Religious Education equipment on the Continent will be the leader in the discussions in this field. President Davis of Chicago Theological Seminary is expected to speak of the drive which is being made for Training Colleges. Entertainment of the delegates is being supervised by Mrs. Frank Waddell and the business of the Association will be arranged by Miss Marian Fairbank.

Frank Rolfe and family traveled from Exeter to the city yesterday.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Advisors to District Draft Board—Three industrial advisors have been appointed to act with each district draft board. One of these industrial advisors represents the agricultural interests. Homer J. Tice, the Agricultural advisor for the southern district has asked county agents to come to Springfield, Tuesday, Oct. 8th and report on the labor situation in their respective counties. He wants to know the acreage of corn, wheat, and oats this season, acreage now being sown to wheat and probable acreage of corn and oats next season. Two other questions are asked: Have the farmers a sufficient force to carry on their business and produce along the lines required by national demands? Have you in your county tenant farmers equipped for the conduct of farms who are unable to lease land and reasons therefor? If the readers have any suggestions to make the county agent will gladly welcome them.

Corn Huskers—The State Council of Defense has approved the basic price of 6 and 7 cents per bushel for corn husking, and will conduct a publicity campaign in the southern counties of Illinois to induce corn huskers to come north. This office will agree to place satisfactorily all that may come this way.

Canning Bulletins—When the canning demonstrations were given last August, this office wrote for a supply of Farmers' Bulletin No. 839 on Home Canning by the Cold Pack method. By an oversight this order was not filled until recently. These bulletins were mailed out Saturday, and will, quite likely, be welcomed by the housewives when it comes to canning fried chicken and other meats.

Agricultural Limestone—In order that agricultural limestone may be handled promptly in accordance with the priorities division of the War Industries Board, it is necessary that the order for limestone be accompanied by an affidavit from the person ordering it. A supply of the proper blanks will be at this office to be given to any farmer in the county.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

ed a picnic at Nichols Park on Wednesday evening, coffee was made pork chops, coked over a camp fire, this with the lunch was greatly enjoyed.

Various other picnics have been held during the week. The Home Economics club had a marshmallow-wiener roast on the campus Friday evening.

The students enjoyed a patriotic sing at the Chapel hour on Friday. It is the plan to continue such sings as a part of the school activities.

Friday October 18, will be observed as Founders' Day. The friends of the college are cordially invited to be present. It is planned to make this a splendid patriotic service; several of the local pastors will assist in the program.

"With the Colors"

Letters of Interest from Morgan County Boys in the Country's Service.

From Sergt. W. C. Placke.

Mrs. H. F. Depner of Chapin, is in receipt of the following letter from her brother, Sergt. William C. Placke, with the medical detachment, 131st field artillery, A. E. F., Sergt. Placke has a number of friends in this city, having graduated from Brown's business college with the Class of 1913. His letter follows:

August 29, 1918.
Dear Sister:
Received your letter of July 21st here in France a few days since. I have been here for nearly a month now, am feeling fine and glad to be over here in order that I may have a small part in the great conflict. Perhaps it will not be long until we will have ended the war, at least that is the present indication.
We are now billeted in the house of a French town, the quarters are very comfortable under the circumstances, and the French people are exceedingly courteous and congenial people to meet. The probability is that it will be some time yet before we are sent to the front lines, as we will likely have some more training over here.

The trip from Camp Bowie to New York was very interesting and I enjoyed it to the full. The trip across the ocean was not bad either. At any rate we did not worry much about U-boats.

Hope you are all well and that everything is going along nicely with you. Suppose Henry is getting ready to sow wheat. Will close for this time and shall write again shortly. Don't worry about me.

Your brother,
Bill.

G. S. Alexander Writes Relatives.

Somewhere in France.

Aug. 22, 1918.
Dear Uncle and Aunt:
Am writing this letter to let you know I am in the very best of health and hope that when this reaches you it will find you the same. I am beginning to think that father and mother have forgotten me entirely for I have not heard from them for a long time. Do you know whether or not they have received any insurance papers? If they have not and will let me know I will try and look them up.

I suppose the harvest is just about over by now there and that you are plowing for wheat. I hope the corn is a bumper crop. I have seen only about a dozen hills of corn here in France and this is only about knee high. This is not much of a corn country but it is fine for wheat and oats. Grapes and fruits of all kinds are also plentiful here, but it is not at all like the good old U. S. A. That country has every place on earth beat.

As news is a scarce article I will close for this time, and will write home next time.

Russell Ledy Writes.
Aug. 27, 1918.

Dear Mother:
Just a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope you are the same. We have moved to a different place and now have a little stream right in our back yard, so to speak. I didn't know there was so much to France until this last time we moved, and by chance we stopped in a good place. I saw Paris in the distance Sunday (day before yesterday) and believe me, it is some place. The people in the states don't realize what this war is, for no one can who has not a chance to see it. We passed thru towns that were all shot to pieces. One was Chateau Thierry, which, of course, you have read about in the papers. We even passed along where the boys were fighting. That Kaiser is sure going to pay dearly for all he has done.

None of us realized that it was so bad until we saw the ruins of those villages as we passed them. The night we left our camp for the entraining place we had almost gotten there when a boche plane was sighted just about a mile from us. We could see him clearly in the searchlights. We then fell out and stayed up against a bank along the road because it was moonlight and easy for him to see us.

He set fire to something and after that we moved down the road to our destination. After we arrived at our station we were treated by the Y. M. C. A. to a cup of tea and some cookies and cigarettes.

I went thru the lines about seven times, what do you think of that? I don't know much more to write, except that I am in an American sector No. 5. Tell all the folks hello for me and also tell them to take good care of themselves and especially you. Hoping these few lines will find you well and in the best of health, I remain as ever,
Your loving son,
Russell.

Aug. 30, 1918.

Dear Mother:
Just a few lines to let you know I am all O. K., and getting along fine. We are in a different place now and I like it much better. I took a walk this afternoon and went to a French chateau and believe me it is a wonderful place to live. While I was there I took a look around the place and spent a good deal of my time looking at the garden. I saw everything you raise at home except corn. The people there have some of the most flowers I have ever seen. I never realized there were such places in France until the last move we made.

We have had a fine day today and we sure like it when the sun shines all day. It gets very cool here at night and we sometimes get uncomfortably cool before morning. I am getting along fine and am having fine "eats". I am away from the company and am with an outfit which has a cook who is there with the goods. I don't know much more to write except that everything is all right. Sure I am with Jay Rodgers. Will close for this time.

FROM WILLIAM ALLCOT

Mr. and Mrs. Lee P. Allcott have received the following letter from their son William:

Sept. 7, 1918.
My Dear Folks:
How goes every little thing these days? Have been trying to find time to write you all for quite a while, but have been pretty busy running around and working.

Was on a 94 mile trip by truck a couple of days ago and while on same stopped in to see Captain Carriel at one of the places we stopped. He was awfully glad to see me as well as I was to see him. We talked together for about an hour, then I had to leave for didn't have but a short time to spend there. He wanted me to stay for the day but it was impossible.

I wrote you about Lt. Graft. We sure did have a mighty fine visit together. I sure seemed like old times to be with him. He is the first one of the old bunch I have seen since I landed in France.

This trip I spoke of was sure a delightful one. Took in three nice little towns, also saw the birth place and church of one of France's noted characters. I have been on another nice little trip to a city since I wrote you last. Made same by truck. Have been feeling fine all summer long. It is Sept. 7 and have had no signs of hay fever which helps some. So guess I have missed same. Will close for this time and with lots of love to you all.

Your son,
William.

French Soldier Expresses Thanks

The following letter has been received by Miss Laura Hatfield of Howe street, from a French soldier in answer to a Christmas comfort bag sent thru the Red Cross, last October. The letter was written in French, and was translated by Miss Margaret Walsh of West North street.

With the Army, Aug. 15, 1918.
Dear Miss—
I come to thank you for your kindness in our consideration and your pretty little gifts which have given us great pleasure.

Among all the pretty things, your letter was equally as agreeable surprise as your kind puzzle which gave me an opportunity to make the acquaintance of the amiable donor.

We see with pleasure and we are happy to state that far distant in America there are young and good hearts who are united with us in France.

Yes, dear Miss, the French are happy to see the Americans fighting on our side to defend the noble cause of liberty and they are received with open arms in all the allied families and cities. We hope as you that this year will bring the end of the war, likewise victory and the annihilation of the German empire.

You also, dear Miss, must have at the present hour, some relatives and friends in France, far away from their family and country and you must think with anguish of their fate, while awaiting their return to their native country. This is a young Brigadier who answers you, but who has been at the front for the past four years, he is also pleased with your agreeable thought and kind gift.

Hoping this letter will reach you, I send you my respectful salutations and thanks, dear Miss.

Monsieur H. Lescure.

Albert R. Swain Writes from Camp Hancock.

Albert R. Swain, who is in training at Camp Hancock, Ga., has written relatives here the following interesting letter:

Camp Hancock, Georgia.
Dear Folks:
I should have answered your letter sooner but things have been in an uproar this week. We moved to another section of the camp called "artillery hill". It is about one mile from where we were. We were busy all day moving, had to move the tents and supplies as well as our own personal belongings. We had motor trucks and wagons to haul the stuff, but it all had to be loaded and unloaded. They divided the company into details and each detail had a certain thing to do. Mine was to help load the material for the school, didn't finish loading until about six thirty, got super about seven thirty.

Wednesday morning we had to clean up our new quarters. We moved again, this time only about three blocks, but everything had to be moved. All the heavy stuff was loaded on the motor trucks, but we carried the lighter articles. We started immediately after breakfast and didn't finish until four thirty in the afternoon. Tomorrow we will have to polish our new quarters. Such is army life. Suppose we will be here the greater part of the winter, at least I hope we don't move again within the next two days.

We have very good quarters now a much better place than we had before. Our tents have wooden floors and wooden sides, so you see we are not in the mud. Our quarters are closer to a Y. M. C. A. and also closer to the car line, so we have three new conveniences.

So you are having dry weather, wish you could have had some of the rain we had night before last. It was sure enough rain. It came in torrents for about two hours and the rain ran down the sides of the tent so fast that it washed away the sand along the edges of the tent. Along with the rain we had an electrical storm. Judging from the sound it must have struck close to our tent a couple of times. About a quarter of a mile away the lightning struck and stunned fifteen men, three of them had to be taken to the base hospital. I didn't hear of any other damage except that it burned a hole in a barracks' bag.

One day last week went to Augusta to march in a parade. You have to look like a million bucks whenever you go to Augusta. They marched us about two hours and the captain of the camp said he thought the boys had made the best showing of any organization in the parade.

Never saw so many negroes at any one time before, there were about twice as many negroes as whites. In a one horse wagon I saw two negro women and eleven children, one of the kids was packed under the seat.

I went thru a cotton mill with two other fellows from our squad. It was very interesting. We saw the raw cotton in a room, followed it thru the factory until it came out as cotton cloth. The men who showed us thru told us that they made about sixty five thousand yards a week. The folks working in the mill seemed of a low type, very few had on any shoes. In the country everybody works on a rule in plowing, they use chain harrows and rope lines. They don't overwork. Every time a train passes they stop to watch it. The soil is very poor and is of a brownish red color the water in the rivers is the same color. Here at the camp, tho, it is all white sand.

Have a big bunch of drafted men coming into camp now. We had a bunch of foreigners arrive who couldn't speak a word of English. The company commander had to have an interpreter to make them understand his command. He gave the command, thru the interpreter, for all men who were especially qualified to act as buglers to step forward one pace and the entire company stepped forward one step. They use chain harrows and rope lines. They don't overwork. Every time a train passes they stop to watch it. The soil is very poor and is of a brownish red color the water in the rivers is the same color. Here at the camp, tho, it is all white sand.

We are not very busy now, just have an hour and a half of drill each morning. After the drill our lieutenant in material has been given us bayonet exercise and extended order. It is not compulsory, however. In the afternoon we don't have much of anything to do right now but lie on our cots. We call that "bunk medicine". I suppose we will be at leisure for another week, then start teaching again.

Yesterday afternoon all instructors were marched over to Major Ruth's office and given warrants promoting us from privates first-class, to corporals, so I have a new title now.

Last Sunday night I heard Bishop Chandler, one of the great bishops of the South and he was certainly ne. His text was, "Be Strong and Show Thyself a Man." He is a very short and very fat man and he said his son wrote him that he would be of no use in France because if he were in the trenches he couldn't get out and if he were out he couldn't get in. He said he wouldn't let the "sassy nigger" talk like that to him when he got home, that he would try to put him under strict discipline. He said he wanted his son to eat a meal or two in Berlin before he got home.

Monday night I heard Frances Ingram sing, she is considered one of the greatest contralto singers in the world.

I think I have told you all this time.

Yours,
ALBERT.

From Clifford A. Emerson.

The following letter has recently been received from Clifford A. Emerson, one of the Morgan county men who left this city several months ago for Camp Shelby, Miss.

Camp Shelby, Miss.,
Sept. 24, 1918.

Editor Journal:
I am writing this letter in order to send my best regards to all my friends back home, as I promised to let them hear from me occasionally while at Camp Shelby. All of the Morgan county men in training here are doing their duty with a cheerful spirit, and are bearing the hardships of service without a murmur or complaint. The life here is sometimes a little strenuous, but no man has to carry on his back for a long distance sometimes. But the boys are right on the job at all times and are the stuff of which first class soldiers are made.

The officers at Camp Shelby are more than pleased with the Morgan county men and declare that if all the men were like that it would take long to win the war. A large number of the Morgan county men left last week, and they were all in first class condition. It was a thrilling sight to see the boys march to the train with flags waving and bands playing. If the people back home could have seen them I am sure they would have said at once, "There are the boys who will win the war." Over the top they will go, for they are rough and ready and the Huns had better be on the lookout when the Illinois boys get there.

I think that fathers and mothers should be proud of their sons who are wearing the khaki, and I am sure they isn't a man from Illinois who wants to stay on the side of the ocean. They are all asking to go over and get into the fighting. There are some slackers in this country and when the Yanks get back home they won't want to share their honors with the fellow who tried every way to keep out of the service. The men who are too old to get into the service can help with their money for it takes lots of that to back up the soldiers at the front. If Jacksonville has a single slacker just send him to the Yanks and they will do the rest. We need the help of every able-bodied man in the United States and a little training in the army will soon make that slacker just as good a soldier as any other.

I regret that I am not on the way across with the other Morgan county men who left this camp recently, but I will do my best on this side to back them up. With kindest regards to all my friends in Morgan county, I remain,
Yours very truly,
Clifford A. Emerson,
Development Battalion,
Co. A, Camp Shelby, Miss.

From Walter S. Barber.

F. W. Barber, 1031 North Diamond street, has received the following letter from his son, Walter S., on the S. S. "North Dakota":

New York, N. Y.,
Sept. 28, 1918.

My Dear Father:
I am the proud recipient of your good and cheerful letter under date of the 9th. inst. I am well and enjoying a sailor's life on the Atlantic coast.

Hope this finds all well and enjoying life.

Have you recovered from the accident while on the farm? Hope so.

I have just been listening to the ship's band, playing "My Old Kentucky Home".

And last night after I went to bed, (as I was so tired I retired early) about 8 o'clock, the boys sang, "Where is My Boy Tonight?" Such songs as these and "Home, Sweet Home" etc, etc, touch me deep and make me think of home all the more!

Well, it is the general talk among navy men that they think the war will soon end. But they all believe that the German fleet will come out of the North Sea and do a little dirty work later on. Vice Admiral Sims has a fleet of the U. S. navy over there waiting with the British fleet for the Germans to sail out of their "bottle" for a battle, and if they do there will be a big sea battle.

We, the "North Dakota" dreadnought is expected to join this fleet about the 1st of Nov. We expect to leave here not later than October 15th, and go to Yorktown, Virginia, for a few weeks, then return to New York and then start across the big pond. And this ship can go across the sea in about six days. The "North" Dakota" now makes 26 knots. A knot is 1 1/2 mile. It is a dreadnought, much larger than a battleship, and made on a different plan.

We will go in dry dock soon and may leave just any day. Then again, I may be transferred from this ship to the super-dreadnought, the "Idaho" sometime in this month. It is now at Philadelphia, Pa., and is expected to sail across soon. The super-dreadnought, the "Penna." left for overseas a few days ago. I believe it was. But our coast is kept well guarded.

The new super-dreadnought, the "New Mexico" is near here. And they are building a new "Tenn." a super-dreadnought which will be our largest ship, even larger than the "Penna." which will be the largest ship one time the "Texas" also the "Oklahoma" were the largest, but they are now out-classed.

Speaking of Yorktown, Va., where we expect to go soon, I think it is down near the famous West Point, where "big" men get their military education. And not far from Washington, D. C. It is up the Chesapeake Bay, from Norfolk, Va., and Cape Charles Maryland.

Well, enlisted as a fireman, 3rd class, and that is my rating, but I have not fired any at all yet, and will not fire very much, perhaps, as the engineering department, (and the whole ship's crew, for that matter) is divided into four sections, each section taking turn about of one week each in the fire room, so you see I would fire only one week in each month. But, I am now working in a large engine room, amongst all kinds of big machinery, a very hot, hard, come dirty, and, somewhat of a dangerous job handling heavy iron, steel, etc.

But it is good for a fellow to work hard, I am gaining in strength and weight, and feel much better. I weigh 20 pounds more than I did when I enlisted, on July 10th.

Well since beginning this a few days ago we have gone into dry dock, will be in this dock about a week. And we are liable to leave her in a few weeks for Yorktown, Va., and after there a few days, or a few weeks perhaps, we will return to New York and then sail.

Some say, to Liverpool, Eng. But we do not know where nor when we will go. Our orders will come from the navy department at Washington, D. C. We might be here till Christmas.

The captain has issued orders that no more "leaves" will be granted while we are in the navy yard. So this means that we are not expected to be here very long from now on.

If you should suddenly cease to hear from me for a while, you will know that we have sailed, that is, if I am not sick, of course.

Guess you've heard of the Spanish influenza being everywhere. Some of the sailors on this ship are in bed with it.

One case is a young man named Babb, from Beardstown, Ill., and who has an aunt living in Jacksonville. And we, me and another "Jackie" named Hugh E. Barnes from Alabama walked from end to end of that famous Wall street, the richest street in the world. And we also took a boat and went all thru the Statue of Liberty that wonderful, magnificent and historical structure which France gave to the United States. I also saw the statue, and spot on Wall street, where George Washington made his inaugural address. I believe it was of his first term as President, and also saw the famous and ancient Trinity church where Washington worshipped. I went in the church-yard of this church and saw the grave and monument of Robert Fulton, the famous inventor of steamboats, on the Hudson River. We went under the Hudson, in the train, thru a tunnel cut out under the river. There surely are some great wonders in this world to be seen.

Well, Papa, I have been to the top of the Woolworth building, 750 feet, (55 stories) high, tallest building in the world. And I looked over New York City and it is a most wonderful sight. I must now close. I expect to go back to the ship tomorrow for church services, altho I don't have to be there as I am on a 48-hour leave now. Expect to go over to New York City tomorrow and have some more pictures taken.

Answer soon. With all the news.

Your loving son,
Walter.

THE MEDICAL CORPS.

(By Thomas L. Johnson)

number of a series of war articles by Thomas L. Johnson, formerly in the service of the Allied armies, and relieved from duty because of injuries. He is now employed at Jacksonville State Hospital.

where the ambulances (either auto or horse) came up, then taking an empty stretcher, and going up the line for another wounded man. They keep on doing this until all the wounded are brought in.

I have known medical corps bearers to work as long as 72 hours without sleep and very little food, gathering their wounded in and then dropping from fatigue after their work was done. The dressers when they have finished dressing become stretcher bearers. When they start out they carry a canvas bag full of shell and field dressings strapped to their back.

It was during the Battle of the Somme that the medical corps had many casualties, more than in any other series of battles during the war. Field ambulances have gone into action one day with a full number of men, and come out of action a day or two later with 50 to 75 per cent of their men casualties. The trick invented by the Germans during the Battle of the Somme, I will describe. The German has always believed and does yet, that to pick off doctors and stretcher bearers by snipers will cause much more mortality amongst the casualties than there usually is. This is true, for if there are not enough stretcher bearers to bring the wounded in quickly, they will have to lie out a length of time, their wounds become infected, gangrene sets in and causes death. They followed a system which caused us to lose many good men until their plan was discovered.

Two Germans in each company were told to feign death in the event of the remainder having to retreat, and to remain where they were. The advancing British, when they came up to the German positions, would pass these men, believing them to be dead, and advance farther on. This would leave the Germans feigning death behind the British lines, and as the dressers and stretcher bearers would come up to work on the wounded they would rise up and shoot and snipe one of these men. It went on for a week or two in that way, until an infantryman, slightly wounded, happened to be coming down the line towards the dressing station and saw one of these Germans pick off a stretcher bearer. Of course he killed the German, and on going thru his clothes found documents which gave the plan away. The infantryman turned these papers over to the officer in the dressing station who forwarded them on to the army corps commander.

The army corps commander promptly acted on them and instituted a company that was known as "Battle Police." These battle police followed up the advancing infantry and looked thru every dugout, ditch, shell hole, or other cover on the ground, which had just been captured from the Germans. If they found a dead German, they left him there. If they found one wounded, they also left him, but in such shape that he could not pick up a rifle, etc., and do any damage with it. If they found an unwounded German who was feigning death, Well—I don't know what they did with him but I have a good idea.

Each one of these Germans who were ordered to lie out knew that it was as good as being told to die. They were fortunate in being able to give themselves up after having lain out for a day or two and sniping our stretcher bearers. It was generally a case of being shot and they knew it. But there is discipline in the German army and they just did it without asking any questions.

After the Battle police were in force for a few days casualties among our field ambulances diminished considerably but the first two weeks of the Battle of the Somme we suffered heavily.

During the battle of the Somme which occupied the time between July 1 and Nov. 1, 1916, over 100,000 officers and men of the Royal Army Medical Corps were killed, wounded or reported missing. (The Canadians, New Zealand and Australian army medical corps, are also counted in.) That is proof that the medical corps man does go into the firing line and does take chances as well as the fighting man, more so because he has to stand and face the fire with no chance of retaliation. There are lots of rifles, bombs, etc., lying about the ground just captured, but if he were to pick up one of these and fire at a German and were seen doing it, he would be placed under arrest and court martialled.

The German Army medical corps men carry revolvers (for protective purposes, they say). Why the British, French and American armies do not issue them to their medical corps men for the same purpose, I do not know. The Germans say that it is not against the Hague, or Geneva convention. Very well, let's take it, that it isn't and also give to stretcher bearers some kind of an arm with which to protect themselves. Give them the satisfaction of taking a shot at a German who takes a shot at them.

The Casualty Clearing Station. In French and Belgian towns from 7 to 10 miles behind the lines traversed by railroads, one often sees the school house, and sometimes churches, flying Red Cross flags. Most of the population having gone further back, there is no need for all the schools or churches, so they are turned into hospitals, and these hospitals are the Casualty Clearing Station. Most of them are in buildings, as have mentioned above, school houses, churches, warehouses, etc. Where there are no buildings available or there is not enough space, large tents are used. It is to these stations that the wounded are brought from the main dressing stations.

The personnel of a casualty clearing station is 9 officers, (3 doctors, 1 lieutenant and quartermaster), 77 N. C. O's, and men, and 12 nursing sisters. (In this country called Red Cross nurses). The N. C. O's, and men are used as clerks, ward orderlies, cooks, stretcher bearers, etc. The Sisters are in charge of the wards and operating room. This is the first hospital where the wounded man can be detained for any length of time, if his condition warrants it. In the main dressing station of the field ambulance, they haven't the facilities to keep wounded any length of time, no beds, only stretchers and trestles are used, no proper supply of drugs for hospital use and also no nursing staff. There is very little accommodation in a field ambulance, whereas in a casualty clearing station one finds most of the things necessary. In the casualty clearing station most of the removing of pieces of shrapnel, bullets, etc., is done. In the main dressing station they have an operating room, but only use it out for temporary use and only to be up for a short while, so they cannot do much operating. They do in an emergency case what was not done in the advanced dressing station. In the casualty clearing station they can do operating on a large scale because they have a permanent operating room, staff for it and also a staff that can take care of the patient after he has been operated on. As a general rule wounded are kept 2 or 3 days in the casualty clearing stations, then if their condition permits it, they are sent down to the base in a hospital train. They are mostly admitted one day and evacuated the next.

It is there that the nursing sisters do so much good. They have to work very hard. They generally come on at 8 a. m. and work until 8 p. m. If there is a convoy of wounded too large for the night sister to cope with, some of the day staff have to come back and go to work again until all the wounded are attended to.

These hospitals get bombed from aeroplanes and shelled by the German long range guns. They have done it time and time again and have wounded and killed medical corps men, patients in the hospital and some nursing sisters. Every building and tent is marked by a large Red Cross, visible to the naked eye in clear weather to 8000 feet, and with a glass up to 16 and 17 thousand. (In my service, in the aerial squadrons in both the British and French services I have noted the markings on many of them.) And at night there are lights that shine on the roof and sides of the building that is used as a hospital, visible to a height of 8 or 10 thousand feet. Still the Germans bomb and shell them and claim that they are billets, or that if it was a hospital they could not see the markings on the building. That is the German way.

The officers and men are at the end of certain periods transferred to field ambulances to give them their turn at field work, providing their physical condition will permit them to do the strenuous work required of them in a field ambulance. Then after a certain time in a field ambulance they are transferred again to a stationary or general hospital, unless they desire to stay in a field ambulance.

Stationary and General Hospitals. Stationary or general hospitals are the same thing except that the stationary hospital is under canvas (in tents) and is on the line of communications from 25 miles back of the line to the base and the general hospital is always in some base town.

They both have a personnel of about 26 doctors, 250 N. C. O's, and men and about 34 to 40 nursing sisters. They are put up to hold from 500 to 1,000 patients and are built on the modern hospital style. Their operating rooms are the most modern known, and there are as many as 100 to 200 operations a week in them. To these hospitals wounded and sick are sent from the casualty clearing station. If there is a chance of a cure within a month they keep the patient there, but if the patient is likely to be in hospital longer than a month they send him over to England to a hospital there, and if it is possible for them to cure him completely they do so there, then send the man back to duty; if not, he is discharged from the army and given a pension.

These three parts of the medical corps are the main ones. There are also the running of hospital trains and ships, also done by the medical corps. Then there are small units here and there as Sanitary stations, but of these I do not know very much so cannot say anything about them. I have tried to explain fully the duties of the medical corps that come nearest to the actual fighting. If I have left anything out it's because I either did not think of it or knew nothing about it. I dare say if I ever had done duty in the medical corps other than for the week or two of executive duty that I did, I would know much more about the duties of the corps than I do and could write more about them.

I hope that the reader, if he has had patience to go thru all of these articles has a somewhat better idea of what are the duties of different corps or branches of the service. I have tried to tell of the duties of these branches of the service only except in one or two instances where I brought in any experiences, personal or otherwise, and hope that I have done so to the satisfaction of the reader. The subjects are so varied that it is very difficult to tell all about them, but one cannot do other than the best that is in him. If there is anything further I can explain to any reader, something I have not touched upon in these articles, a letter to me in care of this paper will be answered just as soon as is possible. I do not know all about the army, but what little I do know is at the service of any reader and especially those who have someone serving in the army.

It represents the funeral of the Kaiser, the four bearers being President Wilson, the French President Clemenceau, and the kings of England and Italy. Nearby are ladies representing the various nations engaged in the conflict together with a lot of boys in khaki while in front of the procession is a monument on which are seen camped some of the evil deeds of the departed.

Emphatically Asserts Worn Out, Lagging Men Can Quickly Become Vigorous and Full of Ambition

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

Don't blame the man who is perpetually tired; his blood needs more red corpuscles and his brain and nerves are craving for food. Given the right kind of medicine any tired-out, inactive, lagging fellow can quickly be made into a real, live, energetic and even ambitious man.

So says a student of the nervous system who advises all men and women who feel worn out and who find it hard to get up ambition enough to take a regular job to get a package of Bio-feren at any drugstore.

This is the new discovery that pharmacists are recommending because it is not expensive and speedily puts vigor and ambition into people who despaired of ever amounting to anything in life. People whose nerves have been wrecked by too rapid living, too much tobacco or alcohol, have regained their old-time confidence and energy in less than two weeks.

No matter from what cause your nerves went back on you; no matter how run down, nervous or tired out you are, get an original package of Bio-feren at once. Take two tablets after each meal and one before bed time—seven a day for seven days—then one after each meal till all are gone.

Then if you still lack ambition, if your nerves are not steady and you haven't the energy that red-blooded, keen-minded men possess, your purchase money will be gladly returned.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren. It is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium, Glycophosphate; Iron; Ext. Nux. Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Oleoresin; Capsicum; Kola.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH,
FROM CONSTIPATION

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Clean Liver and Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they deeply love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Adv.

Red Cross Picnic at Meredosa
Was Great Success—Funeral of Soldier Held at Naples.

Meredosa, Oct. 3.—The Red Cross picnic took place Thursday as advertised with an immense crowd in attendance. Many attending from the nearby towns. The burgo soup, fried chicken, and fish, pies and cakes were in abundance and serving begun at about ten o'clock in the morning and lasted until about ten o'clock in the evening. The home carnival attractions were well patronized thru the entire day and evening. The home talent play in the evening was so well patronized that man were turned away with out admittance and each member of the company played their part in a splendid manner. The dance in the evening was a success socially and financially. The afternoon's program consisted of a band concert by the Meredosa band assisted by some of the members of the Brown county bands. After which several speakers were introduced. Among them, Corporal Johnson, a returned soldier from the trenches who had no trouble in holding his listeners as his address was of intense interest from start to finish.

A service flag was dedicated with appropriate service in the morning and it was suspended across Main street bearing about ninety five blue stars and one gold star which represents the sacrifice paid by Arthur Winningham.

The picnic was a grand success from start to finish socially as well as financially every man, woman and child in their precinct doing their bit which added to its great success. Never was anything given where everyone did their best to make the gathering a successful and profitable one. It is thought that the Red Cross society will go over the top with $2,000 clear of expenses which speaks well for the precinct.
